Rev. Father J. M. Carnet, the popular rector of the Church of the Holy Family, is instructing a later number of students in Spanish. The students number many of the smart mambers of society with a generous sprinkling of men among which are two distinguished members of the bar. Father Carnet is an excellent instructor and especially gifted in the art of imparting knowledge. He has a wonderful command of languages. French, his native tongue, he speaks with the brilliance of a savant, and is equally as proficient in both Spanish and Italian. While the class is large, there is room for more who are large, there is room for more who are seriously inclined to increase their store of knowledge.

St. Luke's Guild

The little folks of St. Luke's Sunday school enjoyed a splandid time Friday evening at the chaming Deits place. From the early honr of five until eight-thirty, the little people reveled in all the good things in the way of games and music, and an abundance of frozen dainties and a plentsous serving of cakes provided by the lovely matrons who had charge V.
